

Life, Fire & Safety Awards

2014 Fire Prevention Week

October 5 – 11

“WORKING SMOKE ALARMS SAVE LIVES; TEST YOURS EVERY MONTH”

The Georgia Insurance and Safety Fire Commissioner’s Office will recognize individuals and organizations for their contributions in fire prevention, protection, and leadership. The individuals and organizations will be honored at the 22nd Annual Life, Fire & Safety Awards Luncheon, Thursday, October 30, 2014, from 11:00 a.m. – 2:00 p.m., at the Georgia Public Safety Training Center, in Conference Bays A & B.

Please submit nominations for the following categories:

Firefighter of the Year

This award recognizes a firefighter who has made a significant contribution in fire and/or emergency medical services through professional and community service efforts.

Fire Safety Educator of the Year

This award recognizes an individual who has made significant contributions in the reduction of fire and its consequences by promoting fire safety education.

Fire Official of the Year

This award recognizes a public fire official who has demonstrated outstanding leadership by improving fire and/or emergency medical services provided to Georgia citizens.

Safety Fire Commissioner’s Citizen’s Courage Awards (2)

There are many professional individuals who save lives and property. In addition, there are private citizens who have demonstrated unselfish acts of courage by responding to an emergency to save lives and/or property. This award is presented to two individuals – one for ages 17 and younger, and one for 18 and older.

Fire Safety Prevention Program of the Year

Effective fire prevention and protection includes practical and creative methods of reducing fire risks. This award recognizes any program that promoted fire safety awareness and/or enforced fire safety compliance.

Example: Mandatory fire sprinkler ordinance, mandatory fire safety compliance inspections in commercial/residential occupancies, smoke alarm distribution programs, extensive fire prevention training for all personnel, fire prevention training within a business, or any other program that promotes fire prevention via education, engineering, or enforcement.

The winners will be recognized during the Twenty Second Annual Life, Fire & Safety Awards Luncheon at the Georgia Public Safety Training Center in Forsyth, Georgia, from 11:00 a.m. until 2:00 p.m., Thursday, October 30, 2014, in Conference Bays A & B. Each winner and one guest will be our complimentary guests at the awards luncheon. Other family members and friends are welcome to join us at their own expense. The luncheon cost is $22.00 per adult and $12.00 per child ages 12 and under.

Please submit the attached nomination form. Nominations must be received in this office no later than 4:30 p.m., Monday, September 29, 2014.
